ANGEL STARS™ BRING MAGIC TO SPRING FAIR 2006 Hall 5, Stand D67

For the more socially responsible consumer who wants to ensure their money makes a difference, the Angel Stars™ dolls, which have been designed as gifts or collectibles and to appeal to young and old, represent a new concept within the toy and gift industries. This is because for each one of the enchanting Angel Stars™ dolls and action figures bought, a soft-bodied Cherub Star™ doll will be given to someone in need, bringing joy to two people at the same time.

Angel Stars™ are specially designed, fully jointed play dolls/action figures with natural body shapes. Each doll is beautifully crafted and exquisitely dressed with elaborately detailed angel finery and wings. Appealingly boxed as a gift or collectible, each one comes with a special and unique angel accessory and colourful illustrated story book, which follows the Angel Stars™ on their mission to make the world a better place.

Owning an Angel Star™ has appeal at several different levels, adding value to each purchase: owners will have a beautiful play doll of their own, but will also know that a child "in need" has received a Cherub Star™. Angel Star™ owners will also receive regular e-newsletters, which will keep them up to date with news about Angel Stars™ and where the Cherub Stars™ are being donated. Included within the Angel Stars™ concept is the internet-based community that owners can become a part of by visiting www.angelstars.co.uk.

Measuring about 9 ½“ in height, the Angel Stars™ are cleverly designed as toys to play with, but their detailing and clothing make them a perfect collectible or gift. Angel Stars™ characters also have strong cross-cultural appeal and are ideal for boys and girls aged three years and upwards.
